TVA Office and Outreach

(Funded through Aneurin Bevan University Health Board until 31st March 2027)

Torfaen Voluntary Alliance is seeking a Health & Wellbeing Engagement Officer to strengthen connections between communities, the voluntary sector, and health and social care partners across Torfaen.

This role will support collaborative, place-based approaches to health and wellbeing, helping to ensure community insight, lived experience and voluntary sector expertise are embedded within local and regional planning and delivery.

Funded by Aneurin Bevan University Health Board, the post plays a key role in supporting the health, social care and wellbeing agenda through strong relationships, effective engagement and practical coordination.

About the Role

You will work closely with community groups, voluntary organisations and statutory partners to:

- Build and maintain strong relationships across the voluntary, community, health and social care sectors
- Support partnership working at local, regional and place-based levels
- Contribute to networks such as Integrated Wellbeing Networks and Neighbourhood Care Networks
- Promote the role and value of the voluntary sector within health and wellbeing systems
- Support inclusive engagement, ensuring under-represented communities can shape priorities and activity
- Contribute to reporting, monitoring and learning to inform ongoing development

About You

We're looking for someone who:

- Has experience in community development, engagement, partnership working or a related role
- Understands the voluntary and community sector and its role in health and wellbeing
- Is confident working with a wide range of partners, communities and professionals
- Has strong communication, organisation and coordination skills
- Shares a commitment to inclusion, accessibility and community-led approaches

Why Join Us?

At TVA, you'll work at the heart of collaboration between communities, the voluntary sector and statutory partners, helping to shape how health and wellbeing support is developed and delivered across Torfaen.

You'll be part of a small, committed team, contributing to meaningful, place-based work that supports stronger communities, better connections and long-term wellbeing.
